

REV. DR. ALONIA PARKS

SERVANT LEADER / PASTOR

Dream to Destiny Ministries, Inc.

“And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.” — Colossians 3:23 (KJV)

This biblical principle is the foundation upon which Rev. Dr. Alonia Parks has built a life of faith, service and purpose. Affectionately known as Pastor Alonia, she is a gifted preacher, teacher, psalmist and transformational communicator whose ministry is rooted in the belief that the Word of God has the power to change lives, restore hope and lead people into victorious living.

Pastor Alonia's journey of faith began at an early age. At just six and a half years old, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior at Greater Bethany Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia, where she was baptized by Rev. Curtis Lester. From childhood into adulthood, she remained actively involved in the life of the church, serving in the choir, teaching Sunday School and extending hospitality through the Courtesy Guild. These formative experiences cultivated a heart for worship, discipleship and service that continues to define her ministry today.

In January 2000, Pastor Alonia answered the call to preach the Gospel and was licensed into the ministry by Rev. Dr. Curtis Lester at Greater Bethany Baptist Church. She was later ordained an Elder by Pastor Marvin Hill of New Birth Urban and International Ministries in Atlanta. She was subsequently re-consecrated to the office of Elder in July 2011 by Rev. Dr. Grace C. Washington of Love Life Christian Fellowship Church in Ellenwood, Georgia.

Throughout more than 25 years of ministerial service, Pastor Alonia has served in numerous leadership capacities, including Christian Education Director, Youth Pastor, Pastor and Psalmist. Her approach to preaching and teaching is distinguished by her ability to illuminate biblical truths through compelling storytelling, connecting the experiences of biblical figures with the realities of contemporary life. With a unique gift for uncovering the message beneath the message, she brings Scripture to life in ways that inspire reflection, encourage spiritual growth and challenge individuals to move beyond merely hearing the Word to applying it in their everyday lives.

In April 2016, Pastor Alonia founded Dream to Destiny Ministries, Inc., launching the ministry on the campus of Victory Baptist Church in East Point, Georgia. Today, she serves as Servant Leader/Pastor of the Atlanta-based, Christ-centered, nondenominational virtual ministry. Its mission is to help people live victorious lives through the Word of God by fostering spiritual growth, cultivating God-given gifts and encouraging believers to walk boldly in faith, purpose and destiny.

An Atlanta native and proud product of Atlanta Public Schools, Pastor Alonia graduated as salutatorian of Bass High School. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Spelman College and pursued graduate-level studies in Biblical Studies and Theology at Luther Rice Seminary. In 2022, she received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Global International Alliance in recognition of more than three decades of humanitarianism and philanthropy.

Beyond the pulpit, Pastor Alonia is an award-winning journalist, seasoned communications strategist, keynote speaker, author, certified life coach, entrepreneur and inspirational vocalist. She is the CEO of Dream 2 Destiny Enterprises, a communications and human development company through which she has served individuals and organizations across corporate, nonprofit, educational, governmental, entrepreneurial and faith-based sectors. Her writings have also reached faith-based audiences through contributions to PreachingWoman.com and ShulamiteWomen.com.

Known professionally as Dr. Alonia, The Prolific Voice, she has devoted more than four decades to using the power of communication to inform, inspire and impact lives. Whether preaching the Gospel, teaching biblical principles, offering encouragement through song or helping individuals discover their God-given potential, her personal and professional mission remains consistent: to use her voice to help others find theirs.

Above all, Pastor Alonia considers it an honor and a sacred responsibility to serve God and His people. Her heart's desire is that lives will be transformed through the uncompromised Word of God and that individuals will recognize their identity in Christ, embrace their divine purpose and walk confidently into the destiny God has ordained for them.
